

SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT TRAINING

8. Emergency Response Team Workshop

BENEFITS

Upon completion of this program, participants will be able to:

- J Understand the requirements for emergency response planning;
- J Understand the roles and responsibilities of the Emergency Response Team;
- J Use the different types of emergency equipment as provided by management;
- J Understand the importance of emergency information; and
- J Carry out emergency procedures as documented in the Emergency Response Plan.

AUDIENCE

Safety & Health Officer, Safe & Health Committee Members, Emergency Response Team Members, Fire & Rescue Squad Members, First Aids Members, Spill Response & Control Team Members and OSH Practitioners.

METHODOLOGY

This stimulating program will maximize understanding and learning of each participant through lectures, practical group exercises and videos.

INTRODUCTION

- J Statutory Requirements for Emergency Response in Malaysia
- J Objectives for Emergency Response Planning
- J Types of Emergencies
- J Levels of Emergencies
- J Organizations for Emergencies
- J Roles and Responsibilities for Emergency Response Team
- J Emergency Control Centers
- J Emergency Equipment
- J Emergency Information
- J Detection, Alarm and Initial Response
- J Emergency Communication

ACTIVATION OF EMERGENCY RESPONSE PLAN
GROUP EXERCISE I
GROUP EXERCISE II

END.